

Joseph V. Reed served by subpoena on 11/11/77

I had the occasion to encounter and individual who raised your name immediately after being served with a subpoena. He did it in such a way as to lead a reasonable person to believe he had influence w/ you.

The man's remarks were both inappropriate and improper. His name was Joseph Verner Reed.

I'm calling <sup>to let you know this</sup> for 2 reasons:

- 1) he ~~added~~ <sup>used</sup> your name while talking on at Joseph Reed's place -
- 2) I have to ~~trust~~ <sup>trust</sup> by the man's remark. I am not going to be too trusting; my brains to can't manipulate the system.

We have been attempting to interview Reed for close to 5 months. Numerous telephone calls were placed to him. He failed to answer any of them. I conservatively place the number over 10.

Last Tuesday, while I was in NY, I was asked by our associate counsel to attempt another contact. I was told by Reed's advy. asst he would have no personal contact w/ the "October Surprise" Congressional Task Force. The asst provided a series of reasons which the "October Surprise" atty ~~and~~ <sup>considered</sup> invalid. I was specifically instructed to serve a subpoena on him, but not do it @ the U.N.

I served him on Wednesday evening when he came home from work. He was surprised and absolutely livid at being served at home. His response could best be characterized @ hauling out.
